

The Paparazzi

The Paparazzi are 1940's style journalist reporters that entertain guests arriving at a special event. The Paparazzi will take photos as guests arrive from the street entrance to the pre-dinner drinks area. There are lots of fun and surprises as our reporters ask arriving guests questions like:

- "Excuse me, can we have a photo?"
- "I'm from Rolling Stone, just one photo please"
- "This dress is stunning. Who was your designer?"
- "Is it true about you and George Clooney?"
- "We're hearing rumors of a sequel to your last movie...any inside info?"

The focus is on comedy and light hearted fun. The main purpose is to welcome guests, make them feel special and direct them to the pre-dinner drinks area.
